

Edward W. Kahle

---

1102 County Route 6
Germantown, NY 12526

Phone: 518-697-0484
518-537-6888
E-mail: edkahle1@hotmail.com

Summary

To run for Town Board in Clermont, NY; Life-long resident and third generation to live in Clermont; Started and runs a business in the town; Co-organizer of grassroots political activist group, Hudson Valley Americans for Freedom; Campaigned around Clermont as a volunteer for several elections

Overview of Work Experience

Twenty-five years experience in project design and management of all phases of construction projects and developed and grew K-3 Builders from the ground up, acquiring a reputation of expertise in the industry; Results-oriented with the ability to coordinate multiple projects and teams simultaneously

Work Experience

1985-Present, K-3 Builders of Fine Homes, Inc.; Hickory Knolls Apartments

Over see the renovation and new construction of various commercial and residential buildings ranging from $300,000-$1.5 million and all related construction operations, including high-end homes, multi-unit apartment complexes, offices, retail establishments, and church; Work as needed in the capacity of electrician, carpenter, plumber; Write and negotiate contracts for building projects; Negotiated with vendors and suppliers; Estimate time and material costs; Recruit, hire, and scheduling of subcontractors; Architectural design of projects; Followed construction drawings and specifications; Performed customer service follow-up; Recognized by clients for superb workmanship and communications; Maintain excellent safety record; Owner and maintenance of Apartment Complexes

1980-1984, Oil Burner Technician, William H. Kahle & Son Fuel Oil Company

1979-1980 Farm Hand, Spring Valley Farm

Education

1982-1984, Associate in Construction Technology, Hudson Valley Community College

References

Peter Wheelwright, New York University, Dean of Parson School of Design, 212-619-2010

James Campion, President, Columbia-Greene Community College, 518-537-5349

Ed Harrington, Herrington's Lumber, 518-325-3131

Awards Received

Many homes built were included in local magazines and mentioned in national magazines

Interests and Hobbies

Beekeeping, raising chickens and turkeys, gardening, archery, hunting, furniture building

Volunteer Experience

Fire fighter in Clermont, NY; Volunteered to help Chris Gibson run for Congress in NY 20th District, which was a successful campaign; Volunteered to help Carl Paladino run for Governor in NY, which was a successful primary; Volunteered to help with Ron Paul campaign for U.S. President in 2007-8; Co-organizer of Hudson Valley Americans for Freedom in 2010-2011